

Bobby has been married to his wife, Charmain for 21 years. He has two children. His son, Taylor attends Louisiana State University and is a member of the Tiger Band. His daughter, Olivia is a junior at Walker High School.

Bobby is a veteran of the United States Air Force where he served as a member of the security forces from 1996 to 2000. During that time he was assigned to the United States Special Operations Command (SOCOM) headquarters in Tampa, Florida. He was involved in numerous priority and humanitarian deployments to include missions in Guam, Japan, and Diego Garcia.

After receiving an honorable discharge from the Air Force, he moved home to Houma, Louisiana where he worked as a deputy sheriff with the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office. While there, he performed duties as a patrol officer until he was promoted to the K-9 division. He was later promoted to the rank of Sergeant and performed duties as a school resource officer. While working as a deputy, he obtained his law degree from Loyola School of Law in New Orleans by attending classes in the evening program.

After receiving his license to practice law, he began his legal career as an Assistant Attorney General where he was assigned to the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit. While there, he prosecuted numerous cases for fraud, elder abuse, and exploitation of the infirm.

After leaving the Attorney General's office, Bobby accepted a position with the Department of Transportation and Development where he was responsible for ensuring highway projects were completed in accordance to law and was responsible for reviewing title documents and obtaining right of way acquisitions and servitudes.

In his spare time, Bobby enjoys fishing, camping, and spending time with his family and friends. He is an animal lover and enjoys spending time with his three Pembroke corgis.
